Caution!

WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of snuff generally, that since the war, certain tobacco manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuffs are no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them; as they are the losers thereby. It will be found upon comparison that "Lorillard's Snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of the many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast), or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

ask the attention of all interested in the reduction of the extravagant cost of Butter, to their practical and economical system of making pure pine Butter by the aid of the

Extract Butter Plant

A brief allusion to the origin of this important discovery may not prove uninteresting among the authenticated records of the renowned Captain Cook's voyage around the world, is found the statement, that while sojourning for a short time on the Brazilian Coast of South America, he observed the natives using in the preparation of their food a peculiar oil, which, upon examination, he found to possess the appearance, taste and flavor of Butter; upon further inquiry, however, he ascertained that it was simply a substance that the natives distilled in a crude and imperfect manner, from a rich and luxuriant plant that grew spontaneously and abundantly in that warm tropical country—A few years ago, an eminent French chemist, while on a professional visit to the tropics, made numerous experiments with this remarkable production of nature, and succeeded in extracting a concentrated essence of the plant. The formula for its preparation, and the Sole Right for its sale in this country are the exclusive property of this Company, by whom it was purchased from the original discoverer. We claim for this remarkable, yet simple and perfectly harmless preparation—

1st.—That by its use a net gain of from 50 to 200 per cent is made in the manufacture of Butter.

2d—That Butter, which from age or whatever cause may be strong, rancid, streaked or coarse-grained, and comparatively useless for general use, by the aid of this Extract is restored to its original freshness and sweetness, fine-grain, and even color.

3d.—By the use of this Extract, one pound of delicious, fresh Butter is actually made from one pint of milk.

4th—That a pure and excellent table Butter can be made at a cost of from 15 to 20 cents per pound. The chief expense where in being Butter, which is the essential base.

5th.—That Butter manufactured by the aid of this Extract, is equal in every respect to the best Butter made by the ordinary method.

6th.—The Extract after thorough analysis, by able chemists, is pronounced perfectly free from any deleterious substance, the ingredients being purely of a vegetable nature.

7th.—In proof of the foregoing assertions, the factory of this company is making one ton of Butter per day, which meets with ready sale in the New York Market, and is consumed from the tables of the first Hotels, Restaurants and Private families in this city and elsewhere.

A sample package of the EXTRACT (sufficient to make 25 lbs of Butter,) with full directions for use, will be sent to any address on the receipt of $1.

CAUTION—As all articles of real merit are subject to spurious imitations, we would specially caution the public against counterfeits and worthless imitations, advertised as powders, compounds, &c., as the Extract of the Butter Plant is prepared and sold only by

SPRING BONNETS.—We know that nothing pleases our lady readers more than correct accounts of the fashions, and that they are especially interested in all that relates to these beautiful little pieces of head gear which they dignify by the name of bonnet. To gratify them in this respect we publish the latest mode from Paris:

Crape or silk tulle is the material of the fashionable chapeau, and white is perhaps most generally in favor, though light bright shades of color are very prevalent. One chapeau in white silk tulle has its front formed of a tall pointed diadem of white flowers with rose color hearts and flexible stems that keep them in a constant tremor, while a little bird, poised beside and aigrette of brilliants, hovers as it were over the flowers. Another formed of a rondeau of white satin, and a large puff of white silk tulle, has a diadem of primroses surrounded by a border of rich lace, which slightly overhangs the forehead. The strings are composed of tulle plisse, edged on one side with white satin ribon, and fastening tightly under the chin with a lace bow. Chapeaux in white satin are trimmed with a tiny rose and large green dragon fly, with diamond eyes, posed at the side, and with a mantilla in white silk tulle which fastens on the breast. A bonnet in white imperial rep has the edge bouffonne, with tulle illusion in which a little bird of blue and golden plumage is nestling; the tulle strings, with a traverse of white satin plisse, are secured at the breast, with a small tuft of feathers matching the plumage of the bird. Other chapeaux, of white blonde or tulle, trimmed with scarlet flowers and buds peeping out of green spiked leaves, posed apparently at random, and which, more minute in size, are repeated at intervals upon the wide blonde strings that fasten under the chin with a full-blown scarlet flower.

A MERCHANT, not over conversant with geography, on hearing that one of his vessels was in jeopardy, exclaimed—"Jeopardy, jeopardy, where's that? At any rate, I'm glad the ship's got into a port."

A GOOD LOOKING young lady recently entered a dyer's shop, and thus accosted him: "You are the man that dyes, are you not?" "No," replied the gallant, "I am the man that lives; but I will dye for you."

TERRIBLE KEROSINE ACCIDENT—A WHOLE FAMILY BURNED.—A terrible kerosene accident, caused by the explosion of a lamp, occurred last evening at No. 131 Meadow street, Hoboken. A family consisting of three persons were burned. The son has since died of his injuries, while the mother is fatally wounded. The father escaped with only a few slight burns.

It seems that William Haese, a German mechanic, was detained at his labor until a late hour, the wife waiting tea for her husband's return. Haese came home shortly after 9 o'clock, when the family, consisting of himself, his wife Emily, and their son Gustave, a lad of eight years, sat down to the table.

In some way, while reaching across the table for a plate, the boy overturned the lamp, which broke. The oil exploded instantly, the blazing fluid scattering itself over the persons of all three, and, setting fire to their clothing, burned them horribly. Their screams attracted the attracted the attention of the other inmates of the house, who rushed into the room and finally succeeded in extinguishing the flames.

The sufferers were removed to St. Mary's Hospital, where they attended bp Dr. R. F. Clabert, who did all in his power to alleviate their sufferings, but without avail in the case of the boy Gustave, who died this morning. The mother, Emily, is also fatally burned, and will probably die before night. The father is only slightly burned, and will recover.—New York Post Friday,

☞ Freddy is a little one of seven years' growth, the son of a minister, who, with his wife has just arrived at a new field of labor. Hearing his mother say to his father that she had been deceived by him saying the parsonage was a three-story building, when, in fact, it was only two, he said: "Ma." "Well, Freddy."—"The kitchen is one." "Yes."—"This floor is two, and the story that pa told is three."

NEAR THAT SPOT WHERE THEY HAVE LAID HER.

BY MARTA.

Near that spot where they have laid her
Calm and gently down to rest,
Where my loved one sweetly slumbers
With the damp sod on her breast,
Nightly do I love to wander,
When the stars illume the sky,
And no sound doth break the stillness,
Save the night wind's gentle sigh.

Near that spot where they have laid her,
Hidden from all mortal sight,
Is my only place of comfort,
Through the calm and quiet night.
Oft when I am softly gazing,
On the moon's pale form above,
Doth I hear her gently whisper,
And she seems to talk of love.

Near that spot where they have laid her,
Softly wrapt in death's embrace,
There I sit me and in spirit,
All the happy hours retrace,
Hours which we have spent together,
When our hearts were filled with bliss;
When our vows of love were taken,
And we sealed them with a kiss.

Near that spot where they have laid her,
Where she, calmly resting now,
Where the fire fly's lamp is blazing,
And the willow fairs her brow
There I'll tell them for to lay me,
When the form of death is near,
Sleeping 'neath the "weeping willow,"
By that spot I love so dear.

WHAT sort of a drum is that which is best when it cannot be beaten?—Why, a conundrum, to be sure.

WHY is a street car not likely to be struck by lightning? Because it has a conductor.

WHY are good husbands like dough? Because women need them.

How long did Cain hate his brother? As long as he was Abel.

WHICH times are best? Meal times.

THE most valuable prize—enterprize.

WHY are hay and straw like spectacles? They are for-age.

WHEN is a thief like a poor billiard player? When he makes a strike for the nearest pocket and misses it.

SAID a conceited young lady, "You men are a covet-ous set."

WHY is a leaky barrel like a coward? Because it runs.

SURE way to lose your health—Keep drinking other people's.

How much does a fool weigh? A simple-ton.

WHY is Ireland like a bottle of wine? Because it has a cork in it.

MR. EDITOR NEWS—There seems to be a doubt as to whether Magistrates are to be elected on the approaching first Thursday in August. Can you inform your readers? If not, perhaps the phunny phellow of the Raleigh Standard—if he could keep from his langlabilities that long, might send his and your readers word. PHIX.

Since the above was received, the Standard has come to hand, containing the law on the subject. It will be seen that an election for Justices and Town Clerk, will take place on the first Thursday of August next. We publish below the Act in full:

Sec. 2. All acts or proceedings by or against a Township, in its corporate capacity, shall be in the name of the Board of Trustees of the Township.

Sec. 3. The Board of Trustees of each Township shall consist of a Clerk and two Justices of the Peace, except as otherwise provided in this act in respect to Justices of the Peace in those Townships in which cities and towns are situated.

Sec. 4. In every Township in which any city or town is situated, or which may consist of a city or town, the number of Justices of the Peace to be elected shall be two more than the number of Wards in such city or town, or in case such city or town is not divided into Wards, then one additional Justice for each five hundred inhabitants, or if there are less than five hundred inhabitants, one additional Justice; for the purpose of obtaining the number of inhabitants in any such city or town, the corporate authorities shall have power to take a census thereof.

Sec. 11. The board of trustees shall have power to purchase and to hold for the use of the township, such real estate as they may deem necessary, not to exceed one acre, and to erect thereon a township house, which shall be as near central in location as may be; and for the purpose of buying such property and erecting such building, they are authorized, if they deem it expedient to lay and collect a tax upon all the property in the township, with the approval of a majority of the qualified voters of the township, to be given at an election to be held for that purpose under the directions of such trustees.

The clerk of the board shall perform the duties therein enjoined upon the clerk of the late county court; and the Township constable shall perform the duties imposed in said chapter on the Sheriff.

Sec. 15. In all cases of the exercise of authority under the preceding section, there may be an appeal by either party from the decision of the township board of trustees to the board of commissioners of the county, whose decision in the case shall be final; and, on every appeal, the Clerk of the board of trustees shall transmit to the commissioners of the county all the papers in the case, and the parties shall be allowed to be heard before the commissioners de novo.

Sec. 16. The township board of trustees shall assess the property of their townships, and make return to the county commissioners for revision, as may be prescribed by law.

Sec. 17. The township board of trustees of each township shall make out a written report upon the condition of the roads and bridges in their respective townships, to the county commissioners, at least ten days before the regular terms of the Superior Courts of the county.

Sec. 22. The commissioners of any county not included in this act, shall have power to designate their present election precincts, as townships, for school and assessments purposes, until a proper survey is made and a report of the same is made to this body.

Sec. 23. All laws in conflict with the provisions of this act are repealed, and this act shall have force from the day of its ratification.

Ratified the 12th day of April, A. D. 1869.

THE CONSOLIDATION MEETING.—Yesterday, was held the meeting favoring consolidation, a brief report of which we give below. The meeting was presided over by Hon. M. E. Manly with Judge Thomas, of Craven, Judge Russell of Wilmington and John F. Wooten of Lenoir, as Vice-Presidents. Among those attending upon it were many who have occupied and now occupy, positions of prominence in the State. Of its results the future will speak. We give the excursion down the river, arrival of delegates and the meeting proper in the order they came.

THE EXCURSION.

At half past eight o'clock in the morning the steamer Ellen S. Terry, which had been placed at the disposal of the Committee of Arrangements by the agents of Murray's Line, Messrs. Witford, Dill & Co., cast loose from her moorings, preparatory to steaming down Neuse river, on an excursion for the pleasure and amusement of the visitors then present in the city. The decks of the steamer were crowded with gentlemen while the saloons were occupied by the ladies. Nearly all the visitors in the city were of the party of excursionists. After passing down the river a short distance below Wilkinson's Point, twenty miles from the city, the Terry steamed rapidly back to town, arriving at her wharf a few minutes before one o'clock.—Refreshments were plenty, and the beverages were poured down with a gusto that denoted their excellent quality. The excursion was very pleasant, and had it not been for the extreme heat, would have been highly enjoyable.

Several of the visitors created no small amusement by arraying themselves in long white dusters over their cloth apparel to keep off the dust.—They were evidently more used to railroad than steamboat traveling.

MORE VISITORS.

The excursion train arrived from Goldsboro at a few moments past one o'clock, bringing a large addition to the many visitors already in the city. Among the new arrivals were many gentlemen of great and present prominence in North Carolina affairs.—Several ladies were of the number brought to the city by this train.

The train from Beaufort, earlier in the day, also was loaded with passengers who came to attend the consolidation meeting.

THE MEETING AT THE ACADEMY GREEN.

The meeting was called to order on the Academy Green, at four o'clock by the Chairman, Judge Manly. The number of persons in attendance was large, most of those present being directly interested in the object of the meeting—the stock-holders of the North Carolina and the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroads. A large platform was erected for the Chairman, Vice President, Committee of Arrangements and speakers, over which, in large letters, were inscribed the mottoes: "Consolidation," "Union of the East and West," "North Carolina Forever." During the intervals following the conclusion of each speaker, a brass band in attendance, enlivened the meeting with music, the favorite air being Judge Gaston's well-known ode to the "Old North State Forever."

THE SPEECHES.

The first speaker was Judge Manly, who addressed the meeting at length upon the issue before it. The Judge said that he had not yet become so old, but that the future of North Carolina awakened in him feelings of deep interest, and he thought that that future could be materially advanced by the consolidation of her railroads—the union of the fertile plains of the East with the magnificent mountains and valleys of the West. Argument upon argument was adduced to demonstrate the facility and utility of the measure. The Judge closed his remarks with a cordial invitation to the delegates to partake of the hospitalities of the city, and expressed the hope that they would carry away with them a pleasant remembrance of their visit to "Elm City."

Mr. A. S. Seymour was the next speaker. He proceeded to show the motives which actuated the Legislature in passing the Consolidation Bill, cited instance after instance to prove the benefits that had accrued to other States and corporations by similar measures and ended by stating that consolidation was a fixed fact, for which the people of North Carolina would hold the originators and those who consumated it in grateful remembrance.

Col. Wm. H. Malone of Caldwell, was next introduced. The Colonel discussed the subject under consideration for more than half an hour in a factious but most happy and appropriate vein, keeping those present "on the grin," so to speak, until he concluded. He spoke of the difficulties under which North Carolina labored, and pointed to consolidation as the most effective remedy therefor. The Colonel drew a pleasing picture of the advantages which would accrue to the State by the measure, and indirectly to the whole country. He pledged himself to use his utmost endeavors to have the Western Extension added to the line after consolidation was effected, and then, with a short grasp filled in, we would have a continuous line to Little Rock, Arkansas, with the prospect of a line of Railroad from the Atlantic to the Pacific, is to be the terminus of the Southern Pacific Railroad. The Colonel made many handsome allusions to our city and people and ended by pledging the people of the West to the proposed measure.

Dr. M. F. Arendell, of Carteret, was next called before the meeting. The Doctor's remarks were brief but to the point. He announced himself and the people of Carteret as ardent supporters of the scheme, and said that he hoped to see all of those present at Beaufort Harbor to-day, where they could have an opportunity of testing the hospitalities of the citizens.

Mr. J. H. Haughton then took the speaker's stand. Mr. Haughton said a few years ago the people of this city were much divided on the question under discussion but now they were almost a unit in its favor. With Colonel Malone he expressed the opinion that a few years would witness a continuous line of Rail Road from Beaufort Harbour to the Golden Gate. Mr. Haughton discussed the subject at considerable length and in a very able manner, clearly demonstrating its utility, and the benefits that would accrue from it to the State and to the people of this section.

At night the Green was illuminated and the speaking was continued. Addresses were made by Major R. P. Waring, of Charlotte, John Manning, Esq., of Chatham, and C. H. Brogden of Wayne. Their addresses were argumentative and strongly favoring the consolidation measure. We regret that we are unable to give even a brief synopsis of their remarks.

All the speakers were listened to with an earnest attention that bespoke the interest felt in the proposed measure. Those who favored it were more than ever convinced of the certain benefits, and those previously disposed to combat its utility where compelled to admit that their opposition was not based on good and sufficient grounds.

In New York city last week, at the yearly meeting of the Hicksite Quakers, Daniel Hill, of Ohio, said that 14,000,000,000 lives had perished by war since the creation of the world—an average of 5,000,000 annually, or 6,000 per day.

Hailstones the size of a man's head are said (by the Columbus Index) to have fallen in Noxubee county, Miss., on the 12th ult. The same paper says "wherever the tornado of frozen missiles touched a field, universal ruin followed."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A THRILLING INCIDENT

In the mission life of Mrs. Ingalls, in Burmah, is well told in the 'Baptist Messenger,' relating how she was sent for to visit one of the Buddhist high priests, who had been nearly killed; and how, while in the most holy place in their temple, where none but priests had ever before been admitted, she was permitted unrebuked to use for him the sacred vessels, which none but the high priest dare touch, and to even overturn and sit on one of their gods to rest; all through the magic influence of the Pain Killer, called by them the 'God medicine.' So successfully has she used it in curing their many diseases, some of them considered heretofore fatal in that climate, among which were cholera, liver complaint, dyspepsia, the bites of venomous reptiles, &c. This speaks volumes for the Pain Killer.—London Times.

Rev. J. E. Clough, Missionary at Ongole, Southern India, writes:—"We esteem your Pain Killer very highly for scorpion stings, cholera, &c., and cannot very well get along without it."

Rev. I. D. Colburn, Missionary at Tavoy, Burmah, writes; 'I shall be happy to assist in extending a knowledge of a remedy so speedy and effectual."

THE PLEASURES OF THE SEASON—INTERESTING SABBATH SCHOOL CELEBRATION AND PIC-NIC.—Our friends of the Baptist Church, with their various classes of Sabbath School children, left the town on Friday last for the inviting shades of Durham's Grove, a magnificent grove on the line of the N. C. Railroad in Johnston County, for the purpose of enjoying their annual picnic celebration.

At eight o'clock, the little ones, all happy and delighted at the anticipated pleasures of the day, assembled at the Church, and under the charge and guidance of their teachers and friends, marched in column, to the number of some two hundred, to the train, which was waiting to take them to the grounds selected for the festive occasion. Here they were joined by a number of our citizens making the excursion party number nearly, or quite, three hundred persons.

A interesting ride of an hour, or more which was varied by numberless pleasing incidents along the way, the throng arrived at their destination, and while the Pastor and teachers proceeded to arrange for the day's enjoyment in the "wild old woods," the boy's naturally pitched pell mell into the umbrageous depths, scampering in every direction, and making the welkin ring from one extremity to the other with their loud hallos and resounding laughter. The girls too, no less influenced by the fresh invigorating country air and the happy surroundings, proceeded to frolic in their quiet, innocent way.

A grander or more inviting site for Church festival could not have been selected. Several acres, carpeted with green, is one vast and stately temple of Nature reared by the hand of the Creator of the universe. The forest pride and monarch, in all its towering majesty, spreads out its protecting folds above the assembled throng, and more effectually than could any canopy of human construction, it shuts out the piercing rays of the noon-day sun, while through its leafy bowers the cool, refreshing zephyrs soothe and fan the hot, excited cheeks of the recipients of the grateful shade.

"I love the spot where God's great trees have room
To spread their branches forth on every side,
And lift their tops in native forest pride
As in their own domain, and bud and bloom
In vast variety."

In the midst of this lovely grove is an old-fashioned country well of tolerably cool, good tasted water, and around this the entire party gathered—some to slake their thirst after the ride, and others merely for the sake of a taste; and as fast as could be manipulated up and down, the crystal fluid was passed around the company until all were satisfied.

"The old oaken bucket, the iron-bound bucket,"

About noon, a long rudely improvised table, heavily laden with choice edibles, might be seen spread out in the grove, presenting a magnificent sight. Soon after the "set out," the entire party were engaged in discussing the various viands, and enjoying the relish and novelty of the fete champetre.

After dinner, preparations were being made for the afternoon exercises. But alas! for the vanity of human expectations, although the morn had broke beautifully, and the bright rays of the summer sun, up to noon, gave token of an exceeds ingly fine day, a thunder storm suddenly burst over the heads of the rural excursionists, accompanied with a heavy shower, which drove them to seek shelter in the hospitable farm houses of the neighborhood.

All prospect for out-door pleasure was now at an end, and about nightfall the party returned to town, having had a very good, social reunion, notwithstanding the contrary atmospheric elements.

FINE WHEAT.—Mr. Bryan Whitfield has presented us with several heads of Wheat which are well filled and will soon be ready for the harvest. There are two varieties, known as the Broughton, and Pennsylvania Purple Stalk. Mr. W. has a large field in Wheat, which will compare with the sample sent us. We doubt if any of our up country farmers can show a finer field of this grain. Mr. Whitfield is a practical and experienced farmer, and his prospects for a profitable yield this season are very flattering.

SEED WHEAT.—We direct attention to the advertisement of Geo. A. Deitz, of Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, to be found in our paper to-day. This gentleman is a scientific farmer, and is also editor of the Experimental Farm Journal, published at Chambersburg. We give below what Mr. Deitz says of his seed wheat:

TWENTY NEW VARIETIES OF WHEAT,
WELL TESTED AND ACCLIMATED.

I have twenty varieties of the best Red and White Wheats in the country, thoroughly proved and tried by years of experiment, which I will offer to farmers and wheat growers for seed during the coming summer. These varieties are the result of five years of careful experiment and labor, during which I have expended large sums of money in importing different kinds of wheat, and other grain, from Europe, and devoted all my time and labor to their development and acclimation.—Much the largest number received have been rejected after a careful trial of their merits and capacity for adaptation to our soil and climate, and those which I now present to the consideration of the farmers of the United States possess such qualities as, in my opinion, are particularly desired by the wheat growers of this country. They have proved themselves to be the most prolific and hardy, the earliest to mature and the best adapted to the different wheat growing sections of the country.

I offer these varieties of wheat to the public with the feeling that, after several years spent in introducing seed wheats and other grains to all points of the United States, which have more than sustained the representations made for them, I have won the right to claim its confidence.—Immense numbers of letters, from all parts of the country, from those whom I have supplied during the last two years, have brought me flattering testimonials of the success of my enterprise in this particular.

In the July and August numbers, of the Farm Journal will be given careful and specific statements concerning each of the varieties which I offer, relating to their various qualities, the tests that have been made with them, and the soil and climate to which they are best adapted, also the method of culture which I have employed in each. They will also contain price lists for the delivery of seed wheat in large or small quantities, with suggestions as to ordering and shipping them.

Farmers will confer a favor on the subscriber, as well as on his neighbors, by sending lists of the names of the farmers in their neighborhoods. I will forward a copy of the July and one of the August Numbers, free, to every one whose name is thus forwarded to me.

WENT THROUGH US.—Some rascal forcibly entered the office of Dr. G. L. Kirby, in the rear room of which we were sleeping, on Sunday night last, and took therefrom our coat, vest, pocket-book, and everything which the pockets of the garments contained. In the pocket-book, among other papers, was an annual pass over the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, and we would caution the Conductors of this road to be on their guard.

The thief, at the same time and place, rifled the pockets of Mr. J. D. Robinson, with whom we were rooming, taking his keys, knife, &c.

On the same night the rear room of Mr. Freeman's Store was entered, but the robber took nothing but a coat, the property of our young friend, Mr. Normand Northam.

A CABLE dispatch states that there were twenty thousand persons present at the grand Protestant Congress at Worms on the 31st ultimo. By a unanimous vote they condemned the encyclical letter of the Pope, and refused to send delegates to the Ecumencial Council. The Greek Church had previously refused.

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate—a Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or form they may deem best;" and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakeable English, and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it up on the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed—He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars, comes in possession of a homestead, which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed.

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to three thousand and one—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents, that already, before the first grand drawing has taken place applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the Secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh on Saturday last, passed off to the delight satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

STILL THEY COME.—Another batch of 1,250 Chinese women were landed in San Francisco on the 20th. The men had a fight over them as usual. We often reflect how trivial are the occasions for the wars and the strife of this poor world.

STRANGE IF TRUE.—It is said that in a mirage on Lake Ontario last week the shore of Canada was brought distinctly in view.—The position of every object was reversed—the houses appeared bottom upwards, the trees were turned topsyturvy, and the women on the shore were all standing on their heads. Horrible!!!

WEST HOLLAND,
Reg'r and ex-officio Clerk.

To the Citizens of Goldsboro'.

For want of proper encouragement the Wayne Hook and Ladder Company, of Goldsboro', has ceased to exist. At a meeting held Wednesday evening, November 24, 1869, the few members who have remained faithful to their trust, resolved to disband and turn the truck over to the town authorities. The Company has labored under great disadvantages, and been subject to much discouragement from the start. Organized last August, with a roll of about 44 members, after the first few meetings scarcely more than a half dozen ever attended. The men of property and those who would have given character and efficiency to the Company, have generally held aloof and by their example done what they could to discourage and break it up. The truck and apparatus is now in the hands of the town authorities, and it remains for the citizens to say if they will organize another white company or turn it over to the colored people. We stand ready to join another company as we think the good of the town demands that we should have an efficient fire company.

Respectfully, &c.,
JOHN H. POWELL,
J. B. WHITAKER, JR.,
JULIUS A. BONITZ, Committee.

If the ladies but knew what thousands of them are constantly relating to us, we candidly believe one half of the weakness, prostration and distress experienced by them would vanish. James Marsh, Esq., 159 West 14th St., says, "he has three children, the first two are weak and puny, his wife having been unable to nurse or attend them, but she has taken PLANTATION BITTERS for the last two years, and has a child now eighteen months old which she has nursed and reared herself, and both are hearty, saucy and well. The article is invaluable to mothers." &c.

Such evidence might be continued for a volume. The best evidence is to try them. They speak for themselves. Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, diabetes, &c., will find speedy relief through these Bitters.

Progress of the North Carolina Railroad.

We have received from William A. Smith, President of the N. C. R. R. Company, a statement of the receipts and expenditures of that Road for the eleven months ending April 30th, 1869, compared to the receipts and expenditures for the corresponding eleven months in 1867 and 1868. The receipts for the eleven months were $599,398.48. Actual current expenses were $346,811.58. Nett for eleven months $252,586,60. The amount of assets on the 30th of April, 1869, is stated to be $156,942.21 more than on 31st of May, 1868.

This is a very fair showing for the present management of the road.—The road has not yet been under Republican management a year, and this report evidences a prosperity that is more marked in comparison than any other interest in the country.—What is more emphatic in this connection is that when President Smith first assumed control the Democratic press generally predicted a depreciation in the value of its stocks in consequence of their proj hesied decrease in business and profits, and that their false representations and delusive, malicious hopes have been proven groundless by the stern logic of events. A report of the comparative earnings and expenses in July 1867 and 1868 was made in August last, which showed a balance in favor of July, 1868, under the present management, of $12,271,07. The STANDARD published the statement, and predicted that the year would be equally prosperous. That was again declared to be a statement more favorable than could be sustained for twelve months; but eleven months have run their round and we have $156,642.21 profit in excess of the previous year, a monthly average of $14,240.20, an excess over and above the first monthly report of $1,969.13.

We are assured that this result is attained by economy and energy in the management, and by an actual increase in the business of the road, brought about in part by combinations to secure a quick transit to freight and the accommodation of the wants of the people along the line of the road. The road and its rolling stock were never in better condition than to-day. Valuable additions and repairs have been made during the year, and the capacity for transportation has increased at least forty per cent.

Although the Democratic press almost universally made an outcry when the road changed hands, we are happy to state that since these results have been shown the Charlotte Democrat, Milton Chronicle and Hillsboro Recorder have done justice to Mr. Smith and complimented the management, and we understand many heavy private stockholders have expressed their confidence in Mr. Smith by expressing a desire that his present policy should continue.

We rejoice at this favorable state of affairs, not only because it refutes the oft-repeated croakings of those who became the enemies of the road when they could no longer control it, but because it gives us a practical illustration of a paying railroad in which the State has an interest.—There can be no doubt that what this road does can be done by the other roads of the State, as soon as they are completed and in successful operation, and the country along their lines is developed by being brought near to market through their agency. —Standard.

REMARKABLE EGGS.—We copied from several of our Virginia exchanges last week notices of the appearance in their respective localities of remarkable double-shelled eggs. There seems to be some mystery about these remarkable phenomena. The superstitious will doubtless take them for a "sign."

The Shepherdstown Register says that Mr. Jacob Ferrell, of this place, has left at our office a large hen egg containing a separate egg inside of the outside shell. The inside shell was connected, at the little end, with the outside shell and the rest of the space between them, about one-fourth of an inch, was filled with the white of the egg. The yolk was within the second shell and also some white.

Surgical Examination of the Siamese Twins.

[From the London Star.

Sir James Simpson, the Professor of Medicine and Midwifery in the University of Edinburgh, has examined very minutely and from every point of scientific interest these twins, and has delivered a lecture to the students of the University class on these and other recorded cases of united twins, of whom they are in many respects the most remarkable on record. In this lecture, which he publishes in the British Medical Journal, he gives first their history and description. Chang and Eng, or as they now sign themselves, Chang and Eng Bunker, are now 50 years of age.—They were two of several children, the rest being naturally formed.—When infants they were attached face to face, but instinctive efforts from the earliest age have so far elongated the band as to enable them to adopt an imperfect lateral relation to each other. They are short, but wiry-looking men, Eng, the taller of the two, being only five feet two and a half inches—Chang an inch shorter. They use the outer legs more than the inner, by standing, and these are the larger in circumference.—There is no inversion of position of the heart and [illegible] Prof. [illegible] has [illegible] ela- [illegible] the [illegible] the [illegible] Ex- [illegible] ten, [illegible] flu- [illegible] ty- [illegible] an [illegible] in [illegible] nd [illegible] if- [illegible] n- [illegible] [illegible] functions they are shown by Sir James Simpson to be two separate and distinct individuals. They can walk, swim and run; they are keen sportsmen and good shots; intelligent, well-informed and good men of business. They are naturally much accustomed to join in the same conversation, but can each easily carry on a conversation with two different individuals. They sometimes read separately, each to himself; more often one aloud to the other. Their minds, indeed, are more dual than their bodies; the latter are united together, but the former are not. The band of union is formed partly by the extension of the cartilages of the breast-bone; it is four inches and a half long, and eight inches and a half in circumference. When the twins have suffered from blood diseases, as small-pox, measles, ague, they have been affected simultaneously. Nevertheless, from experimonts which Sir James Simpson has made with drugs, he concludes that the vascular connection between the two brothers is comparitively very small. On the question of the surgical separation of the Siamese Twins, "Chang and Eng," says Sir James Simpson, have themselves no desire to be surgically divided from each other. But some of their relatives and families have become anxious that they should be separated, if it were possible to do so. The operation is certainly possible, and would be attended with little, or indeed, no difficulty; but it would be so perilous in its character that the twins could not, in my opinion be justified in submitting to it, or any surgeon be justified in performing it."—He then enters into details to justify his opinion. Chang and Eng are married to two sisters, the daughters of an American clergyman. Each brother has nine children. The family of Eng consists of six sons and three daughters; the family of Chang consists of three sons and six daughters. Their first children were born within three or four days of each other; the others at irregular intervals. Chang's ninth child was born three months ago.

Sir W. Ferguson has carefully examined the twins, and, we understand, concurs in the general opinion of surgeons that any surgical separation would be most likely attended with fatal consequences, not so much on account of any obstacle presented by the structure of the uniting band of flesh as the moral effect of the disunion on the two brothers.

How to Break Cattle to Lead.—Take two animals of about equal size and strength and tie them together with a strong rope by placing one end around the horns of one animal and the other end around the horns of the other, and make them fast, as for leading or tying up, leaving three or four feet of rope between the inner horns, and turn them into a field free from trees. Let them run, pull and haul, till they are tired of it, and they will walk side by side and feed together. Then take off the rope and they will ever after lead with the docility of a child, even though the first occasion may be years afterwards.—It is much easier than for a man to be jerked around all day by a wild heifer or steer, and more effectual. We have tried it and know.

"Have you much fish in your bag?" asked a person of a fisherman. "Yes, there is a good eel in it." replied he.

Native Fertilizer.

[From the Lynchburg (Va) Virginian]

Vast quantities of money are annually sent out of the South for foreign fertilizers. A discovery has been made, which we hope will result in retaining the most of this annual expenditure at home, thus adding greatly to the available resources of the South. It has recently come to light that there are, in the caves of Lookout Mountain, Tennessee, immense quantities of bat guano, which analysis has proved to be superior to the Peruvian. These caves, of which there are eleven in number, have been infested, for probably hundreds of years by millions of bats, which have hatched, lived and died there without ever seeing the light. The deposits that have accumulated from them are said to be almost inexhaustible. One of these caves alone is twenty-one miles in length.

This guano has been tested on vegetation with the happiest effect. Besides stimulating the plant, it is said to act as an effectual safeguard against worms and bugs. It contains a large per cent. more of ammonia than the Peruvian article, and is pronounced more valuable by those who have tried both. We saw some of this product yesterday at the commission house of Messrs Lee & Taylor, and, on smelling, found the ammonia in it nearly as strong as in heartshorn.—Messrs. Lee & Taylor are the agents [illegible] this State, and the owners say they can ship them ten thousand tons a year, if they can find sale for it.

The caves are owned by five Confederate soldiers, who purchased them for five hundred dollars, and their means are too limited to permit them to work them on the scale that their importance demands. They, therefore, we learn, desire to dispose of an interest in them to procure capital with which to enlarge their operations. The secret was discovered by a nitre agent of the Confederacy during the war, and communicated to one of the present owners.

CONGLETON'S

VEGETABLE SALVE

The Great Cure for Piles.

Tetter, Burns, Fresh Cut Wounds, Old Sores Chapped Hands, Lips and Face, Throat, Boils, Bruises, Shingles, Corns, &c.

THE great cures that this Salve has, and is now making, particularly the astonishing cures of Piles which it has effected, places it beyond question, as the greatest remedy for this disease that has ever been known.

Sufferers from this dreadful and troublesome complaint, and their numbers are counted by thousands, and daily increasing, can confidently rely upon this Salve as the great medicine that will certainly cure them, having never known it to fail in a single instance.

Below we give for the benefit of those suffering from Piles, a few Testimonials from those who have suffered and been completely cured by the use of Congleton's Vegetable Salve:

TESTIMONIALS;

Williamston, Martin Co., February 22nd, 1869.

Mr. Jno. R. Congleton, Raleigh, N. C.

Dear Sir:—For the last eight or ten years I have been exceedingly troubled with a painful and distressing case of the Piles. Hearing "Congleton's Vegetable Salve" spoken so highly of as the great cure for Piles, I purchased in March, 1868, while in Washington, N. C, one box, and was soon relieved, and by the time I had used the contents of the box, I was perfectly well, and have never had any return since. I consider myself entirely and permanently cured. I give this for the benefit of those who may be troubled with the same disease, believing thereby that I will be benefiting them, and recommending to them a most valuable medicine and worthy of great praise.

I have also used the salve for Sore Throat, and find it the best medicine I ever had in my family for that complaint.

Respectfully yours,
JAS H ELLISON.

☞ THE MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF PILES ON RECORD ☜

Wake County, N. C, Feb. 14, 1866

Mr. Congleton—Dear Sir:—It is with pleasure that I heroin certify to the efficacy of your Vegetable Salve, in the cure of Piles. I have been afflicted with said disease some twenty five years, more or less. I have tried various remedies, but found no cure until I was advised by a friend in Raleigh to try your Salve, which I have done, and am at present perfectly well. I have used only one box, which I think, it judiciously used, will cure any case like mine.

I would advise all afflicted with said disease to go and do likewise.

Yours respectfully,
HENRY UTLEY.

TESTIMONIALS:

Raleigh N. C, Jan 10, 1869.

Mr Congleton:—On the 14th inst., I came to town with considerable pain and swelling in my right knee. I got a bottle of the "American Rheumatic Liniment" and applied it to my knee, which was greatly relieved and assuaged in ten hours. I then applied it again and by night was so far cured as to forget to apply the remedy; this pain had resisted the application of Liquid Opodeldoc for a week without any perceptible improvement, causing a limp in my walk at sometime and fears of inability to walk at all.

Respectfully,
THOS BAILY,
Book Agent, Dayton N. C.

Wake County, N. C., Feb. 24th, 1869.

Mr. Congleton:—Dear Sir: My little son was for four months suffering with pain in his legs and weakness in his knees so he scarcely could get about and walked with great difficulty. I was fearful that he would lose the use of his legs entirely, which gave me a great deal of trouble and anxiety, hearing of the American Rheumatic Liniment, I purchased one bottle and commenced using it, and by the time I had used half of the bottle, my son was greatly relieved and could walk very well, and after using the whole bottle, he is now perfectly well, with many thanks to you and praises for the "American Rheumatic Liniment" I am yours, &c.,

Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which the fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence the deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only Scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as Eruptive and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Blains and Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Rheumatism, Syphilitic and Mercurial Diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Debility, and, indeed, all Complaints arising from Vitiated or Impure Blood. The popular belief in "Sapurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

AYER'S
Ague Cure,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache, or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of Miasmatic Countries.

We are enabled here to offer the community a remedy which, while it cures the above complaints with certainty, is still perfectly harmless in any quantity. Such a remedy is invaluable in districts where these afflicting disorders prevail. This "Cure" expels the miasmatic poison of Fever and Ague from the system, and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of every body; and in districts, where Fever and Ague prevails, every body should have it and use it freely both for cure and protection. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is that it contains no Quinine or mineral, consequently it produces no quinism or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This Cure expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be excreted from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure, and few will ever suffer from Intermittents if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.
